Green Human Rights Matters

Date: 25.05 - 02.06.2022

Place: Paola, Italy

Venue: Villaggio Residence Bahja

Description: The training course will involve 40 participants between 18-35 years old. The main aim of this training course is to prepare participants with new skills, knowledge and tools in the field of human rights and environmental education. The project main idea moves from the fact that human rights and the environment have an impact on each other. Human rights are intertwined with the environment in which we live. Environmental harm interferes with the enjoyment of human rights, and the exercise of human rights helps to protect the environment. Therefore, the training will provide learning resources and tools to participants for the application of human rights to environmental issues, that will have also as positive reflection the fight against climate change and the involvement of more young people in the sphere of environment.

The project will use non formal learning methodology including methods such as: ice breakers, energizers, name games, reflection groups, working into intercultural subgroups, facilitated discussion, creative presentations, simulation, case study and debates.

Working language: English
